Annual report.

The facility's annual report for the previous 2024 federal fiscal year has not been submitted by the required deadline of December 1 to the Deputy Administrator. The annual report ensures accountability for research animals by reporting numbers on an annual basis, and is essential to evaluate the information provided in the reports to assure the care and use of animals were followed according to the Animal Welfare Act regulations. Each reporting facility shall submit an annual report, covering the use of live animals in the previous fiscal year, on or before December 1st of each calendar year.
