Type: ROUTINE INSPECTION
Date: 12-MAR-2014

2.8(h)

NOTIFICATION OF CHANGE OF NAME, ADDRESS, CONTROL, OR OWNERSHIP OF BUSINESS.

The facility was no longer at the approved site address at the time of this inspection. APHIS Officials were informed by a new resident that the licensee had moved to a new location. APHIS Officials were able to locate the licensee at a new site, at which time the licensee confirmed that he was nearly moved to the new facility, but had not yet informed Animal Care. The licensee must notify the Animal Care Regional Director in writing by certified mail of any change in sites within 10 days of such change. Notification of changes in sites are necessary to facilitate timely inspection and approval of the new site in order to ensure that animals are provided with appropriate care as required by the Animal Welfare Act. Correct by promptly notifying the Regional Director of this change in site.

Correct by: 17 March 2014

 No regulated activity can take place at the new site until approved by APHIS Officials. **

Exit interview was conducted with the licensee following the attempt to inspect.
