2.40(a)(1) Repeat

Attending veterinarian and adequate veterinary care (dealers and exhibitors).

At the time of the inspection, the licensee did not provide a written program of veterinary care and did not employ a full-time attending veterinarian. A written program of veterinary care ensures clear and accurate communication between the facility and the attending veterinarian regarding care of animals.

A full-time attending veterinarian must be employed under formal arrangements. Alternatively, a written program of veterinary care under formal arrangements with a part-time or consulting veterinarian and regularly scheduled visits must be in place.

2.75(b)(1) Repeat

Records: Dealers and exhibitors.

At the time of the inspection, the licensee did not have records of animal acquisition or disposition.

Accurate and well-maintained records of acquisition and disposition of animals is critical to ensure a thorough inspection, to rapidly identify and trace animals in a potential disease outbreak, to make sure all animals are accounted for, and to verify animals at the facility receive adequate veterinary care.

The license shall make, keep, and maintain records or forms which fully and correctly disclose the information listed in 2.75(b)(1)(i)-(vii) concerning animals (other than dogs and cats) purchased or otherwise acquired, owned, held, leased, or otherwise in his or her possession or under his or her control, or which is transported, sold, euthanized, or otherwise disposed of by the licensee. The records shall include any offspring born or hatched of any animal while in his or her possession or under his or her control, to the extent that any identification or counting of offspring can be carried out without unduly disturbing nesting or rearing activities.

2.134(a)

Contingency planning.

At the time of inspection, the licensee did not provide a Contingency Plan. A contingency plan is essential to ensuring the health and well-being of animals, in the event of an unanticipated emergency or disaster.

Inspection Report

The licensee must develop, document, and follow an appropriate plan to provide for the humane handling, treatment, transportation, housing, and care of their animals in the event of an emergency or disaster (one which could reasonably be anticipated and expected to be detrimental to the good health and well-being of the animals in their possession).

To be corrected by 9/1/2025.

This inspection and exit interview were conducted with the licensee.
