Type: ROUTINE INSPECTION
Date: 03-DEC-2015

2.33(b)(1)

ATTENDING VETERINARIAN AND ADEQUATE VETERINARY CARE.

**There were two small (approximately 0.5-1 inch long) tears in the cover of the pad covering the surgical table for animals undergoing aseptic surgical procedures. As the foam padding below the torn cover cannot be completely sanitized, this does not constitute appropriate equipment for aseptic surgery.

Items that cannot be completely cleaned and sanitized may harbor pathogens which can cause illness in animals or prolong recovery, particularly those that may have undergone a surgical procedure. Appropriate facilities and equipment must be available for adequate veterinary care of these animals.

Correct by next surgical procedure.

2.38(b)(1)(2)

MISCELLANEOUS.

**Surgical and anesthetic records were not available for review or animals that had undergone such procedures. It was stated that the companies that contract with the registrant keep these records at their own facility, but they are not kept at this registrant's site.

Each research facility shall allow examination of records necessary for enforcement of Animal Welfare Act regulations. Review of these records is necessary to ensure appropriate care is provided for the animals undergoing surgical or anesthetic procedures.

Correct by 1/3/2016.

3.127(b)

FACILITIES, OUTDOOR.

**There were two shelters in the outdoor sheep pen. The shelters were comprised of a roof, support posts and a wall on half of one side of the shelter. As three quarters of the shelter remain open on the sides, the animals may not be appropriately protected from inclement weather such as heavy rain, wind, or snow.

Prolonged exposure to inclement weather may cause discomfort and stress to the animals, which can predispose to development of illness. Animals kept outdoors must be provided shelter from inclement weather appropriate to local climatic conditions for the species.

Correct by 12/17/2015.

The inspection and exit briefing were conducted with the Institutional Official.
