Handling of animals.

On 11/18/22 one macaque (B 16549) was left in a transport enclosure during a transfer to a different enclosure . The animal remained outside in the transport enclosure and was found deceased 3 days later. An internal investigation determined that the established process for transferring animals was not followed by the animal care staff. Animals must be handled in manner that does not cause trauma ,excessive cooling, behavioral stress, physical harm, or unnecessary discomfort. The facility has retrained employees on proper methods when transferring animals and is finalizing a new SOP to cover this process.
