Repeat

Attending veterinarian and adequate veterinary care (dealers and exhibitors).

The white zebu still has overgrown toes that need to be trimmed. The red zebu still has overgrown and misshapen toes that need to be trimmed.

Lack of appropriate hoof care can lead to pain and permanent changes in the bone structure of the foot and carpus. Each exhibitor shall establish and maintain programs of adequate veterinary care that include: The use of appropriate methods to prevent, control, diagnose, and treat diseases and injuries.

2.40(b)(3)

Attending veterinarian and adequate veterinary care (dealers and exhibitors).

The licensee acquired a white-nosed coatimundi on December 3, 2024. The coatimundi has a wound approximately four inches from the tip of the tail that goes around the entire circumference of the tail. The wound is approximately 1/2 to 1 inch in width. There is hair loss and the skin appears to be red. The licensee has not notified the attending veterinarian of the condition of the tail of the coatimundi.

Lack of timely communication with the attending veterinarian concerning veterinary issues can lead to undiagnosed veterinary issues and lack of appropriate treatment and cause prolonged illness and pain.

Each dealer or exhibitor shall establish and maintain programs of adequate veterinary care that include daily observation of all animals to assess their health and well-being; Provided, however, That daily observation of animals may be accomplished by someone other than the attending veterinarian; and Provided, further, That a mechanism of direct and frequent communication is required so that timely and accurate information on problems of animal health, behavior, and well-being is conveyed to the attending veterinarian for diagnosis and treatment.

Records: Dealers and exhibitors.

The licensee stated that two goats have died since the last inspection. These deaths are not documented.

Disposition records are necessary to be able to ensure proper care and humane transportation.

Every dealer other than operators of auction sales and brokers to whom animals are consigned, and exhibitor shall make, keep, and maintain records or forms which fully and correctly disclose the following information concerning animals other than dogs and cats, purchased or otherwise acquired, owned, held, leased, or otherwise in his or her possession or under his or her control, or which is transported, sold, euthanized, or otherwise disposed of by that dealer or exhibitor.
