2.31(e)(2)

Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee (IACUC).

Protocol 23-0408R states the number of rabbits to be used to achieve study objectives. The rationale for the number of animals required, however, does not describe the methods used to ensure the numbers are appropriate. This could result in more animals being used than necessary. The rationale for the number of animals needed must detail the methods used by investigators to determine these numbers.

Correct by 8/21/24, or prior to additional work with rabbits under this protocol.

This inspection and exit interview were conducted with a facility representative.
