2.1(b)(1)

Requirements and application

The licensee has not notified Animal Care of a change in address of his facility. The licensee has moved out of state as confirmed by the new owner living at the facility site address (she stated she moved in in June of 2022). The licensee had been notified by this inspector prior to the move that he would need to cancel his current license and obtain a new license at the new facility since it is in a different state. Notification to Animal Care of any change in the name, address, management, control or ownership, and locations is necessary to inform Animal Care of the change and need for a new license. The licensee shall notify Animal Care in writing of the change in address location. Correct by Oct. 1, 2022.

2.126(b)

Access and inspection of records and property; submission of itineraries.

A responsible adult was not available to accompany APHIS Officials during the inspection process at 2:20pm on August 30, 2022.
