FACILITIES, GENERAL.

There was hay string on the ground in the goat shelter at time of the inspection . String may become entangled on animals legs /horns or be ingested resulting in injury . The enclosure must be kept free of items such as hay string to prevent injury . CORRECTED - removed at time of the inspection .

There is loose wire attached to a metal self feeder for the turkeys . The top corners of the feeder have sharp metal edges. The deer have access to this feeder and there is concern that the loose wire and sharp edges are potential area for injury to the deer. The feeder must be repaired or replaced and maintained in good condition to prevent areas of injury to the animals. CORRECTED - Repairs were being made during the inspection .

The inspection and exit briefing was conducted with the maintenance manager. Records inspection was conducted with the owner.
