Type: ROUTINE INSPECTION
Date: 21-AUG-2014

3.125(c)

FACILITIES, GENERAL.

 A hole in the lid of one of the feed storage containers could allow the entry of vermin, leading to food contamination.

For the health of the animals this should be corrected.

This non-compliance was corrected before the inspector left the facility.

3.131(a)

SANITATION.

 There is an excessive accumulation of excreta in the deer shed.

This excreta could lead to contamination of the animals and create a greater risk of disease. The shed should be cleaned more frequently.

Correct by 8/22/14

3.131(c)

SANITATION.

 It appears that the base of a tree standing in the deer yard has been chewed by the animals and may soon be at risk of falling and causing them injury.

To prevent this from occurring the tree should be removed.

Correct by 9/1/14

An exit interview was conducted with facility personnel on 8/21/14
