Sanitation.

There are accumulations of excreta, hay, bedding and hair on the drainboards below the wire rabbit enclosures. Infrequent cleaning can expose the rabbits to high ammonia odors which can increase disease hazards. Primary enclosures that have wire or mesh floors, the troughs, drainboards, or pans must be cleaned at least once each week to maintain sanitary conditions. Correct by December 15, 2022.

This inspection and exit interview were conducted with a family member.
