HOUSING FACILITIES, GENERAL.

There is an open bag of primate chow in the refrigerator. Open bags of feed shall be placed in sealed containers to protect from contamination. The labels placed on the food containers for smaller distribution do not currently include the expiration dates or the date opened. These items shall be properly labeled to prevent the feeding of expired or denatured food. The hay, straw and wood wool are stored on pallets that are currently directly on the wall. There is no open space between the wall and supplies. Adequate air circulation is necessary to prevent molding and deterioration. The ground around the pallets on the walls cannot be adequately viewed or accessed for cleaning. Storage areas shall be arranged in a manner that will protect the food from contamination and allow cleaning.

Correct by August 2, 2017.

3.81(c)

ENVIRONMENT ENHANCEMENT TO PROMOTE PSYCHOLOGICAL WELL-BEING.

The enrichment plan currently incorporated into the Chimpanzee Care Manual is not complete. It does not address the current social housing structure and the special considerations for chimps that may exhibit signs of psychological distress, juveniles and individually housed. A written plan shall be developed in accordance with professional standards and as directed by the Attending Veterinarian.
