2.75(b)(1)

Records: Dealers and exhibitors.

No records of acquisition, disposition or of animals on hand were available during this inspection. Not having these required records available for review can result in not being able to trace animal movements. Every dealer other than operators of auction sales and brokers to whom animals are consigned, and exhibitor shall make, keep, and maintain records or forms which fully and correctly disclose the information contained in this subsection (i - vii) concerning animals other than dogs and cats, purchased or otherwise acquired, owned, held, leased, or otherwise in his or her possession or under his or her control, or which is transported, sold, euthanized, or otherwise disposed of by that dealer or exhibitor. The records shall include any offspring born of any animal while in his or her possession or under his or her control. Correct by 20March2023.

2.134(a)

Contingency planning.

No documented contingency plan was available for review during inspection. Not having a documented contingency plan can put the animals at risk during times of emergency or disaster. Dealers, exhibitors, intermediate handlers, and carriers must develop, document, and follow an appropriate plan to provide for the humane handling, treatment, transportation, housing, and care of their animals in the event of an emergency or disaster (one which could reasonably be anticipated
