2.131(c)(1)

Handling of animals.

The facility is allowing the public to hold an adult sloth. This allows the public to hold a sloth in a manner that in some instances places the sloth's mouth next to the person's neck. Sloths have the potential to inflict serious bites that can become easily infected and or serious scratches with their long claws if they become agitated or scared. During public exhibition, any animal must be handled so there is minimal risk of harm with sufficient distance and/or barriers so as to ensure the safety of the animals and the public.

*Correct by May 15, 2025 or for all future public exhibition

This inspection and exit interview were conducted with the licensee.
