3.13(a)(1)

Veterinary care for dogs.

The attending veterinarian's most recent visit to the premises was on January 10, 2021, which is over 12 months ago.

Regular visits to the premises are necessary to ensure the health and well-being of dogs.

The attending veterinarian must perform regularly scheduled visits to all premises where animals are kept, not less than once every 12 months.

Corrected on January 22, 2022.

3.13(a)(3)

Veterinary care for dogs.

Although the program of veterinary care includes year-round heartworm preventive treatment, heartworm treatment has not yet begun. Although the program of veterinary care includes annual fecal testing, fecal testing has not yet been performed.

Sampling and treatment for parasites are necessary to ensure the health and well-being of dogs.

Each exhibitor must follow an appropriate program of veterinary care for dogs that is developed, documented in writing, and signed by the attending veterinarian. Sampling and treatment of parasites and other pests, including fleas, worms, coccidia, giardia, and heartworm, must be performed as per the written program of veterinary care.

Corrected on January 21, 2022.

3.13(b)(3)

Veterinary care for dogs.

Although the program of veterinary care includes treatment for fleas, and the licensee stated that flea medication had been recently administered, there is no record of purchase and/or administration of flea treatment, and the stated medication was not available for inspection.

Failure to create and maintain a medical record interferes with APHIS officials' ability to ensure adequate veterinary care.

Exhibitors must keep and maintain medical records for dogs and make the records available for APHIS inspection. These records must include the names of all treatments administered and the dates of administration.

Corrected on January 21, 2022.

3.13(b)(4)

Veterinary care for dogs.

The medical record does not include findings/results for the most recent annual physical examination.

Failure to create and maintain a medical record interferes with APHIS officials' ability to ensure adequate veterinary care.

Exhibitors must keep and maintain medical records for dogs and make the records available for APHIS inspection. These records must include the dates and findings/results of all tests or examinations.

To be corrected by February 1, 2022.

This is a 1st Re-License Inspection for a Class "C" license. The inspection and exit briefing were conducted with the applicant.
