During animal inspection, review of the carrier's daily documents and air waybill, it was discovered that several pallets with 72 puppies (final destination: Mexico City/MEX) had been waiting at the cargo warehouse over seven (7) hours for their flight, Estafeta's Flight 610. At the time of inspection, the 72 puppies would had to wait two additional hours for Flight 610, which had a 6:00 p.m. scheduled departure time.

Carriers must not accept dogs or cats for transport in commerce more than 4 hours before the scheduled departure time of the primary conveyance on which the animals are to be transported. However, a carrier may agree with anyone consigning dogs or cats to extend this time by up to 2 hours.
