2.31(e)(1)

Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee (IACUC).

One of the main active protocols that the IACUC approved to renew and continue in 2023 lists number of animals proposed to be used in 2021 and 2022 but wasn't clear on how many are approved for use in 2023. In reviewing total animal use for 2022 up to the inspection date, it does not appear that the facility has surpassed the approved number of animals for 2022's total use, however the protocol should be clear on how many animals are proposed for this year. Having clearly stated proposed numbers of animals to be used and a clear rational for how many are needed helps ensure the amount of animals used for a study are minimized. To ensure appropriate animal use, the IACUC must ensure that study proposals are clear on how many animals will be used with a rational for the numbers proposed prior to approval.
