Information as to business; furnishing of same by dealers, exhibitors, operators of auction sales, intermediate handlers, and carriers.

According to the licensee, the written program of veterinary care as well as acquisition records were still boxed due to the recent move. These required records were unavailable for review during this new site inspection. It is important for these documents be provided to the Aphis official to ensure that the animals have been appropriately acquired and that an attending veterinarian is employed, under formal arrangements, to provide care for all of the exhibit animals.

Each dealer, exhibitor, operator of an auction sale, intermediate handler, and carrier shall furnish to any APHIS official any information concerning the business of the dealer, exhibitor, operator of an auction sale, intermediate handler or carrier which the APHIS official may request in connection with the enforcement of the provisions of the Act, the regulations and the standards in this subchapter. The information shall be furnished within a reasonable time and as may be specified in the request for information.

Contingency planning.

The licensee has not developed, documented or followed an appropriate contingency plan as required. The written plan should have been in place by July 5, 2022. The plan should be signed and reviewed annually. The contingency plan is necessary to ensure that animals are provided with humane handling, treatment, transportation, housing, and care in the event of an emergency or disaster.
