Requirements and application.

On August 2, 2023, a search inspection was completed. The USDA inspector contacted the facility owner via phone upon arrival at the facility to discuss the disposition of a female wallaby. The facility owner stated they sold the female wallaby in March 2023, no longer keeping as a pet. This is regulated activity under the Animal Welfare Act, as the facility has been operating as a dealer without a valid USDA license.

A USDA license application packet was sent to the facility along with this report.

No regulated activity is permitted until a USDA license is obtained to operate as a dealer, exhibitor, or operator of an auction or sale.

This inspection and exit interview were conducted with the facility representative.
