FACILITIES, GENERAL.

There is a horizontal ninety foot section of zebra-donkey hybrid (z-donk) enclosure fencing, located along the public walkway, which consists of multiple layers of fence material. The fencing material includes: metal pipe, wooden boards, railroad ties, and welded wire panels. Most of the vertical railroad ties are leaning, and the wooden boards which were used to help secure the welded wire panels to the railroad ties, are broken in several areas and no longer keep the panels securely fastened to the vertical crossties. This section of z-donk enclosure fencing is no longer structurally sound and there are sharp edges along the top wooden rail where the z-donk could potentially be injured. This section of fence must be repaired or replaced to safely contain the z-donk and to protect its health and well-being. To be corrected by: July 18, 2014.

Inspection and exit briefing conducted with zoo director.
