Environment enhancement to promote psychological well-being.

An environment enhancement plan to promote the psychological well-being of bird species at the facility was not available for inspection. Exhibitor facilities must develop, document, and follow a species-appropriate plan for environment enhancement adequate to promote the psychological well-being of birds. The plan must be approved by the facility's attending veterinarian and must be in accordance with the regulations in Subpart G under the Animal Welfare Act (found in USDA APHIS Animal Care's "Blue Book"). Also, the plan must be in accordance with currently accepted professional standards as cited in appropriate professional journals or reference guides. In order to ensure adequate overall welfare for bird species, the facility must develop the plan, and must have it available to APHIS personnel upon request during inspections.
