Environment enhancement to promote psychological well-being.

The facility did not have a documented environment enhancement plan to promote the psychological well-being of their avian species as required by the Animal Welfare Act.

The licensee must develop, document, and follow a species-appropriate plan for environmental enhancement adequate to promote the psychological well-being of birds. The plan must be approved by the attending veterinarian and must correspond with currently accepted professional standards. The plan, at a minimum, must address social grouping, environmental enrichment, special considerations, restraint devices, and requirements for exemptions.

Correct by August 31, 2024.

This inspection and exit interview were conducted with facility representatives.
