Type: RE-LICENSE INSPECTION
Date: 07-JUN-2022

2.75(b)(1)(ii)

Records: Dealers and exhibitors.

At the time of inspection, disposition records were incomplete. The USDA Registration number was not listed for all registrants.

Complete and accurate records of disposition are necessary to track animals used in regulated activities to ensure their humane care, use, and disposition.

Every dealer shall make, keep, and maintain records or forms which fully and correctly disclose the USDA license or registration number of the person, to whom animals other than dogs and cats, are sold, if he or she is licensed or registered under the Act. To be corrected by the next re-license inspection.

3.81

Environment enhancement to promote psychological well-being.

The facility has a primate enrichment plan that is species specific for two of the four species housed at the facility. There was no mention of these other two species or any needs that might be unique or specific for them.

An adequate environmental enhancement program that addresses the unique needs of individual species is essential in promoting the psychological well-being of non-human primates.

Dealers. Exhibitors, and research facilities must develop, document, and follow an appropriate plan for environment
