FACILITIES, OUTDOOR.

Two groups of animals do not currently have a shelter which they can go under to get out of extreme weather such as heavy rain. Three yak, 8 pigs, and one bovine in one pasture, and six nilgai in a smaller pasture only have some natural tree and bamboo along the fence lines to shelter from the elements. The nilgai are brought into the adjacent barn in the winter months. Other means of shelter need to be provided to protect the animals from the discomfort of the cold and rain. To be corrected by 11-13-17.

This inspection and exit interview were conducted with the owner.
