Records: Dealers and exhibitors.

There were still no records of acquisition or record of animals on hand available at the time of the inspection for the geese, ducks, young peacocks, guinea fowl, parakeets, ring neck dove, turkey, and emus that are on the premises.

Per this Section of the Regulations, exhibitors shall make and maintain complete records regarding the details of the acquisition and disposition of animals in their possession in order to account for all animal transfers and the sources of the animals. The Licensee needs to prepare records of acquisition and a record of animals on hand for these birds and ensure that the animal records are kept current for all future animal acquisitions.

Environment enhancement to promote psychological well-being.

The written plan developed by the Licensee for environmental enhancement to promote the psychological well-being of the birds has not been reviewed and approved by the Attending Veterinarian.

Per this Section, exhibitors must develop, document, and follow a species-appropriate plan for environment enhancement to promote the psychological well-being of birds. The plan must be approved by the Attending Veterinarian and must be in accordance with currently accepted professional standards as cited in appropriate professional journals or reference guides. At a minimum, the plan must address each of the following: social grouping, environmental enrichment, special considerations, restraint devices, and exemptions. The written environmental enrichment plan for the species of birds maintained by the Licensee must be approved by the Attending Veterinarian.

This inspection and exit briefing were conducted with Licensee.
