3.81(c)(4)

Environment enhancement to promote psychological well-being.

The lemur is unable to see or hear other non-human primates. The facility environment plan to promote psychological well-being describes enrichment, but does not address special considerations.

Certain nonhuman primates must be provided special attention regarding enhancement of their environment, based on the needs of the individual species and in accordance with the instructions of the attending veterinarian. Nonhuman primates requiring special attention are individually housed nonhuman primates that are unable to see and hear nonhuman primates of their own or compatible species. The facility must develop, document and follow an appropriate plan to address the special needs of the lemur. The plan must be in accordance with currently accepted professional standards, as cited in appropriate professional journals or reference guides, and as directed by the attending veterinarian.
