Repeat

Primary enclosures.

The pool for the penguin does not provide adequate surface area and depth for the species. Primary enclosures housing an aquatic bird must contain a pool or other aquatic area and a dry area that allows easy ingress or egress of the pool or other aquatic area. Pools and other aquatic areas must be of sufficient surface area and depth to allow each bird to make normal postural and social adjustments, such as immersion, bathing, swimming, and foraging with adequate freedom of movement. The regulations require these special space requirements for aquatic birds, such as a penguin.

Inadequate space may be indicated by evidence of malnutrition, poor condition, debility, stress, or abnormal behavior patterns. The primary enclosure for the penguin must have a pool that meets the standards of the Animal Welfare Act and regulations.

This inspection and exit interview were conducted with the facility representative.
