2.75(b)(1)

Records: Dealers and exhibitors.

The record of disposition for seven rabbits was not available at the time of inspection. A facility representative stated the animals had been transferred off site. These records are necessary to assess care and welfare of animals and allow tracking of animals being used for regulatory purposes. Every exhibitor shall make, keep, and maintain records or forms which fully and correctly disclose information concerning all animals purchased or otherwise acquired, owned, held, leased, or otherwise disposed of by that exhibitor. These records shall be held for a minimum of one year after the animal is dispositioned and made available to APHIS upon request.

Correct by 28 February 2025.

3.158(a)(1)

Cleaning, sanitization, housekeeping, and pest control.

The primary enclosure for the green-winged macaw, Lola, had a large accumulation of dry, hard excrement on a perch approximately 6 inches by 6 inches. Insufficient cleaning can lead to disease hazards, soiling of birds, insects, pest, odors, and could promote poor psychological welfare. Excreta must be removed from primary enclosures as often as necessary to prevent excessive accumulation of feces.
