NOTIFICATION OF CHANGE OF NAME, ADDRESS, CONTROL, OR OWNERSHIP OF BUSINESS.

While interviewing facility personnel, it was noted by this inspector that USDA regulated activity (staging animals for customer pickup) is occurring at different location owned by the licensee. A licensee must promptly notify the USDA Animal Care office at Raleigh, North Carolina, by certified mail and within 10 days, of any additional sites where business and/or transactions with regulated animals occur. The licensee must immediately request adding the additional site as required by the Animal Welfare Act.

2.76(a)(1)

RECORDS: OPERATORS OF AUCTION SALES AND BROKERS.

At the time of inspection, there were no records of acquisition for two regulated animals, a Fennec fox and a Patagonian cavy. Every dealer must make, keep, and maintain records or forms which fully and correctly disclose information concerning the acquisition of animals for sale by the facility; name and address of the person and/or entity who consigned/sold the animal to the facility, date of acquisition, USDA license number (if licensed with USDA) of the person/entity who sold the animals to the facility, and specific description of the animals. The facility must obtain the required animal acquisition information, and must have it available for USDA inspection at all times.
