Environment enhancement to promote psychological well-being.

The newly-required documented program of environmental enrichment approved by the Attending Veterinarian (AV) for the birds at this facility was not available for inspector review during this inspection. Even though the program is not documented, the inspector observed adequate types of enrichment in their enclosures. Not having the program of environmental enrichment documented and approved by the AV may lead to inadequate enrichment for the birds. The regulations state that dealers, exhibitors, and research facilities must develop, document, and follow a species-appropriate plan for environment enhancement adequate to promote the psychological well-being of birds. The plan must be approved by the attending veterinarian and must be in accordance with the regulations in this subpart and with currently accepted professional standards as cited in appropriate professional journals or reference guides. This plan must be made available to APHIS upon request. Correct by 31October2023.

This inspection and exit interview were conducted with the facility representative.
