2.131(b)(1)

HANDLING OF ANIMALS.

-Two, stacked rows of 15inch tall plastic, pet carriers with cats inside were placed on top of a 43inch mobile transport container. These carriers were not affixed together or secured to the transport container. The top row of pet carriers was measured to be approximately 73inches off the floor. Cats kept in stacked carriers at substantial heights in an unsecure, unstable manner may potentially result in trauma or physical harm to them if the carriers were to fall or unintentionally be knocked over.

-There were two goats kept in one transport container (23in. height X 21in. width X 28in. length) for approximately 10-15 minutes prior to transporting them to a travel trailer. The goats are kept from jumping out of this container and are restricted in movement by a chain which is connected from the inside of the container to the goat's neck collar. Goats kept or handled in such a manner may experience stress or unnecessary discomfort by not having the ability to turn about freely or make normal postural adjustments.

Handling of all animals shall be done as expeditiously and carefully as possible in a manner that does not cause trauma, behavioral stress, physical harm, or unnecessary discomfort.

Correct for all future inspections.

Exit interview conducted with facility representative.
