2.1(b)(2)(ii)

Requirements and application

On August 31, 2025, the licensee acquired a 7 month old female serval named "Miranda. Servals are considered an exotic/wild felid and requires authorization under the exhibitor license.

Licenses authorize a specific number of animals and specific types of animals. The current license does not authorize the possession of Exotic/Wild Felids for regulated purposes. The licensee must obtain authorization for an exotic/wild felid to conduct regulated activity with the serval under the licensing requirements of the Animal Welfare Act.

Correct by 01/31/2026

This inspection and exit interview were conducted with the licensee.

NOTE: No regulated activity should be conducted with the serval until exotic/wild felids and hybrids are authorized under the license.
