2.31(d)(1)(iii)

Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee (IACUC).

At the time of inspection, the protocols did not have written assurance that the activities do not unnecessarily duplicate previous experiments. Unnecessary duplication of research protocols may subject animals to repeated or prolonged procedures without scientific justification, increased risk of pain, stress, and have a negative impact on the animal psychologically. Within the protocols, the principle investigator must provide written assurance that the activities do not unnecessarily duplicate previous experiments.

CORRECTION DATE: 29 JANUARY 2026

2.38(l)(2)

Miscellaneous.

This facility's annual contingency plan review has not been documented for the year. The annual review and documentation of the review, ensures that contingency planning incorporates facility changes and new resources for the management of emergency situations for the animals. Each registrant must maintain documentation of their annual reviews, including documenting any amendments or changes made since the previous year's review.
