Contingency planning.

There is no contingency plan for this facility. The owner has been working on one but it is not complete. Having a contingency plan will help in making decisions during the first panicked moments of an emergency or disaster. The contingency plan must provide for the humane handling, treatment, transportation, housing, and care of their animals during and after the event.

The owner must develop, document and follow an appropriate plan that must be reviewed annually and includes the requirements of 2.134 (a) & (b).
