2.31(c)(1)

Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee (IACUC).

The IACUC has not been reviewing the facility's program for humane care and use of animals at least once every six months.

The facility has been reviewing the program annually (once per 12 months). A facility representative reported they were unaware that the program for humane care and use of animals must be reviewed every 6 months per this section.

Regular reviews are necessary to ensure IACUC oversight of the facility's program for humane care and use of animals.

The IACUC shall review the facility's program for humane care and use of animals at least once every six months. Correct by June 28, 2026.

This inspection and exit interview were conducted with a facility representative.
