2.75(b)(1) Repeat

Records: Dealers and exhibitors.

APHIS was unable to review disposition records for two chinchillas that had been sold, as well as acquisition records for three hedgehogs and two parakeets that were not noted on the previous inspection report, as these records were not available at the time of the inspection. Failure to maintain accurate acquisition of disposition records of animals on hand prevents APHIS officials from verifying that these activities are compliant with the Animal Welfare Act. The facility must ensure that it makes, maintains, and keeps records or forms which fully and correctly disclose all required information concerning animals purchased or otherwise acquired, owned, held, leased, or otherwise in his or her possession or under his or her control, or which is transported, sold, euthanized, or otherwise disposed of by the facility. The licensee filled out acquisition and disposition records for these animals at the time of the inspection.

This inspection and exit interview were conducted with a facility representative.

You may appeal all or part of any inspection report by submitting a written statement contesting the findings—along with any supporting documentation—to the Deputy Administrator. Appeals of routine, focused, or attempted inspections must be received within 21 days of report issuance as shown by the signature line of this report.

Appeals may be sent by email to AnimalCare@usda.gov.
