Facilities, general.

In the new barn housing the tigers, lions and hybrids, the enclosures consisted of 12 foot 2x4 inch 6 gauge welded wire, with double layer fencing between enclosures. The enclosure dividers aligned with the roof trusses, making it difficult for an animal to move into the neighboring enclosures over 12 foot fences. However, along the front, there was a gap between the 12 foot front of the enclosure and the roof of the barn that was between 3 and 4 feet, potentially enough space to allow a motivated animal a route. The facility must be constructed of such material and of such strength as appropriate for the animals involved, therefore additional measures along the front fence of the enclosures are needed to ensure that the enclosures contain the animals.

This inspection was an announced new site approval inspection.
