Classification and separation.

On August 16, 2026, the facility exhibited one domestic rabbit with chickens, goats, and a pig. Rabbits are a species that are not permitted to be co-housed with any other species, unless for specific scientific purposes. Housing rabbits with other species may result in injury or compatibility issues. Correct by October 13, 2026, by ensuring rabbits are not housed in the same primary enclosure with any other species of animals.

This inspection and exit interview were conducted with facility representatives.
