2.75(b)(1)

Records: Dealers and exhibitors.

The dealer has not maintained records which correctly disclose the following information regarding animals purchased and sold by the dealer. Four bobcat records have incorrect acquisition dates documented and three of those four records also have incorrect disposition dates documented. Additionally, one of those four bobcats and one additional bobcat have incorrect birth dates documented on disposition paperwork supplied to a purchaser. Because of the incorrect recorded acquisition, disposition, and birth dates, it was difficult to trace animal movement.

Correct record keeping is necessary to properly identify animals and to accurately trace animals to ensure their legal acquisition, health, and humane transportation.

Every dealer shall make, keep, and maintain records or forms which fully and correctly disclose acquisition and disposition information regarding animals purchased or otherwise acquired, owned, held, leased, or otherwise in his or her possession or under his or her control, or which is transported, sold, euthanized, or otherwise disposed of by that dealer.

Correct by September 30, 2026.
